Purpose

3. The primary purpose of the Fellowship is to promote the establishment of a church that is biblical and generally consistent with the broader doctrines of the Reformed Tradition as articulated in the 39 Articles of Religion, the Westminster Confession (American Revision) and the London Baptist Confession 1689 (hereafter “the Confessions”), while allowing discretion for exceptions in those matters of conscience that can be supported biblically, as identified below:
  - a. Discretion in relation to whether or not an infant may be baptised or participate in The Lord’s Supper prior to any profession of repentance, faith and obedience, so long as there is no evidence of apostasy or renunciation of repentance, faith or obedience.
  - b. Discretion in relation to whether or not a person may be re-baptised due to a prior baptism being considered, by the subject and elders of the Fellowship, to have been insufficient, due to;
    - i. the prior baptism having been done with an errant understanding of the sacrament;
    - ii. there being reasonable suspicion that the baptism was not entered into in good faith by either the subject or the personnel baptising; or
    - iii. due to being presented with evidence of a stark conversion of the subject from hatred of God to love of God, with no apparent continuity between the prior baptism and the Christian conversion of the subject.

- c. Discretion in relation to subjection of the church to a particular form of governing oversight, whether Presbyterian, Episcopal, Associational or Independent, so long as the oversight adopted is consistent with upholding the historical tenants of the faith broadly articulated in the Confessions.
- d. Discretion in relation to the personnel, location and occasion of the administration of The Lord's Supper and Baptism, so long as the personnel, location and occasion are specifically approved by the Committee, and that approval is consistent with the purposes of those sacraments as generally described in the Confessions, with the intent that The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated regularly, ordinarily, and weekly.
- e. Discretion in relation to views on whether or not the miraculous sign gifts listed in 1 Corinthians 12 (wisdom, knowledge, faith, healing, miracles, prophecy, discerning of spirits, speaking in tongues, interpretation of tongues) continue today in the same manner and extent as per the age of Christ and the Apostles.
- f. Discretion in relation to views on eschatology, including views on the nature and time of the millennial reign of Christ, views on the rapture, and views on the state and location of the soul upon death and prior to the Resurrection of the Dead.
- g. Discretion in relation to any other matter of doctrine not common to all three Confessions, so long as in speech or practice within the context and bounds church activities and affairs those doctrines are honoured and not condemned.

4. The Fellowship must not operate for the purpose of, or with the effect of—
  - distributing, any gain, profit, surplus, dividend, or other similar financial benefit to any of its Members (whether in money or in kind); or
  - having capital that is divided into shares or stock held by its Members; or
  - holding, property in which its members have a disposable interest (whether directly, or in the form of shares or stock in the capital of the Fellowship or otherwise).

5. But the Fellowship will not operate for the financial gain of Members simply if the Fellowship—

  - pays a Member for matters that are incidental to the purposes of the Fellowship, and the Member is a not-for-profit entity,
  - distributes funds to a Member to further the purposes of the Fellowship, and the Member—
    - is a not-for-profit entity, and
    - is affiliated or closely related to the Fellowship, and
    - has the same, or substantially the same, purposes as those of the Fellowship.
  - reimburses a Member for reasonable expenses legitimately incurred on behalf of the Fellowship or while pursuing the Fellowship's purposes,
  - provides benefits to members of the public or of a class of the public and those persons include Members or their families,
  - provides benefits to Members or their families to alleviate hardship,
  - provides educational scholarships or grants to Members or their families,
  - pays a Member a salary or wages or other payments for services to the Fellowship on arm's length terms (terms reasonable in the circumstances if the parties were connected or related only by the transaction in question, each acting independently, and each acting in its own best interests; or are terms less favourable to the Member than those terms and the payment for services, or other transaction, does not include any share of a gain, profit, or surplus, percentage of revenue, or other reward in connection with any gain, profit, surplus, or revenue of the Fellowship),
  - provides a Member with incidental benefits (for example, trophies, prizes, or discounts on products or services) in accordance with the purposes of the Fellowship.
